15. Suspension / Cancellation / Force Majeure/Warranties/ Termination for Default

- 15.1 Suspension a/o Cancellation: Buyer is entitled, without prejudice to any rights to compensation of all damage, to defer his obligations pursuant to the Agreement or to dissolve or terminate in whole or in part (hereafter to be called: dissolve) the Agreement by means of a written statement and without prior written default being necessary, if and as soon as Supplier:
- (a) does not, not timely or not properly fulfil any obligation towards Buyer;
 - (b) has applied for or been granted suspension of payment or bankruptcy of Supplier, seizure of (part of) his company property or goods intended for the execution of a contract;
 - (c) ceases its business activities or in case of liquidation of Supplier's business; or

In any such case Buyer is only obliged to pay to Supplier the pro rata price of the Goods and/or Services already delivered, but only insofar the Goods and/or Services delivered are of actual use to Buyer and/or Buyer wishes to keep the Goods and/or Services delivered, without prejudice to Buyer's right of damages as stipulated herein above.

Non-timely performance, as intended in this para 15.1, includes any delay of planning as received or prescribed by Buyer or the assumption – warranted in fairness in view of the actual circumstances – that delay will occur regarding the execution of (part of) any obligation pursuant to the Agreement.

Force majeure: Force majeure means an occurrence beyond the control of the Party affected, provided that such Party could not reasonably have foreseen such occurrence at the time of entering into the Purchase Order and could not reasonably have avoided it or overcome its consequences. This includes, but is not limited to acts of God, act of public enemy, war, blockage, strike on a national level, riot, lightning, fire, storm, flood, explosion, pandemic and government restriction.

A Party shall not be considered in breach of the Purchase Order to the extent it is proven that it was unable to fulfil its contractual obligations due to force majeure. Each Party shall cover its own costs resulting from force majeure.

The Party invoking force majeure shall notify the other Party thereof without undue delay. Such notice shall also include the cause of the delay and the presumed duration thereof. In the event that Buyer or Supplier are not able for a period longer than sixty (60) days to fulfil the Agreement as a result of force majeure, both Parties are entitled to dissolve the Agreement by means of a written statement against payment of the pro rata price of the Goods already finished and/or Services already rendered.

Delay causing Liquidated Damages: Should completion or delivery of the Work be delayed beyond the Delivery Date or a milestone set forth in the Purchase Order is not timely met, then liquidated damages shall accrue at a rate of one half of one percent (0.5%) of the total Purchase Order Price per calendar day by which the Work or part thereof is delayed. Liquidated damages shall not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the Purchase Order Price. However, the Parties agree that Buyer in addition to liquidated damages shall be entitled to recover any documented additional costs and damages that Buyer incurs as a result of Supplier's delay exceeding forty (40) days.

Buyer shall, if the Work is not ready for delivery on the Delivery Date, be entitled to take possession of and move the Work in order to avoid inflicting delay on other work of Buyer. Liquidated damages shall in such cases be calculated from an assessment of days the Work was behind the agreed schedule for the delivery of the Work at the date of removal. Buyer shall in addition to liquidated damages and recovery for additional costs and damages, at its discretion, be entitled to a reduction of the Purchase Order Price reflecting the value of the outstanding Work, to be compensated the costs related to the completion of the Work or require that Supplier complete the Work at its own risk and cost at the location where the Work is moved.

Warranty obligations: Supplier warrants that all parts of the Work shall: (i) comply with all applicable laws and regulations; (ii) be provided in an efficient manner, in accordance with the specifications, or in absence of specifications, in accordance with best international standards of the industry; (iii) be free of any charge, encumbrance, lien and claim of any nature; (iv) be of merchantable quality, free from defects in material and workmanship and fit for the purpose intended; and (v) be new and not used or refurbished. The signing of the Delivery Protocol does not relieve Supplier from any of its obligations under the Purchase Order.

Supplier shall be liable for any and all defects that arise or occur within forty-eight (48) months after Buyer has signed the Delivery Protocol, or thirty-six (36) months after installation or taken into use by Buyer's customer, whichever occurs latest (the "Base Warranty Period").

Any re-performed Work under the warranty period shall carry warranties on the same terms as set forth above, except that the applicable warranty period for the re-performed Work shall be for the longer of:

- (i) the remainder of the Base Warranty Period, or
- (ii) twenty-four (24) months from the date of such re-performance.

In the event that the Work is out of function for a period due to Supplier's default, the warranty period shall be prolonged correspondingly.

Supplier shall, if the Work contains any item(s) similar to a defective item, upon Buyer's request inspect all such similar items and repair or replace them at its own cost if any defect or deficiency is found.

Supplier shall without undue delay for Supplier's account and risk commence with the rectification of a defect when Buyer notifies Supplier of a defect. The rectification work shall be postponed upon Buyer's request.

Buyer is entitled to rectify or remedy the defect itself or to engage a Third Party to do so if Supplier cannot or does not rectify a defect within a reasonable time after being notified of it.

In such case Supplier shall pay the necessary costs of rectification, provided Buyer acts in a diligent manner. The same shall apply if awaiting Supplier's remedy will cause inconvenience to Buyer or its customers.

The Work will be remedied by Supplier at the place where the Work is located unless instructed otherwise by Buyer. If Buyer, upon Supplier's request, accepts that the remedying of defects is to be performed elsewhere, then risk of loss will pass to Supplier and Supplier shall at its expense and risk provide for necessary transportation and insurance of the Work or parts thereof in connection with the remedying of defects.

Supplier will be responsible and liable for the dismantling or removal of the defective Work and re-installation after the defective Work is remedied (including dismantling and reassembly of others than the Work if required to access the Work).

Termination for material breach of contract: Buyer may terminate the Purchase Order or parts of the Work if the defect as such constitutes a material breach of contract or the Purchase Order or Supplier is not able to rectify a defect within a reasonable period set by Buyer. Buyer shall in such cases be entitled to compensation for direct and indirect damages and losses suffered. Supplier shall compensate Buyer all costs and losses accrued due to a defect.

Termination due to Supplier's breach of contract: Buyer is entitled to terminate the Purchase Order or parts of the Work with immediate effect if the maximum liquidated damages have incurred or is likely to incur, Supplier ceases to conduct its normal course of business, proceedings under bankruptcy or in solvency laws are brought by or against Supplier or Supplier in any other way is or is likely to become in material breach of contract.

Moreover, Buyer shall upon termination be entitled to take over any sub-contracts, take possession of all completed Work, Work in process, including design, drawings, documents, documentation, specifications and other technical documents and computer programs and material required or produced in connection with the Purchase Order and title thereto shall vest in Buyer. Buyer shall furthermore be entitled, by itself or through a Third Party, to use Supplier's facilities, premises, sites, equipment, tools, drawings etc. as necessary to complete the Work.

Supplier shall upon termination of the Purchase Order deliver to Buyer all of Buyer's Intellectual Property and confidential information. Buyer shall upon termination due to Supplier's breach of contract be entitled to withhold any amounts due to Supplier and claim compensation for damages and losses suffered.

Liability according to law: Additionally, Buyer shall be entitled to claim damages according to law.
